

Hare and Hounds 8km, Saturday 26th August, 2006

Cooke-McClelland Rev Up

Saturday the 9th of September marks the end of the 2006 APSOC season. This means of course we are going to Burke Hall to fight it out with Haileybury. Some people say that Haileybury can't be beaten –RUBBISH! We do however need everyone and their dog down there to have a chance (and plenty of support). So if you are able bodied, make sure you don't get injured and prepare for a fight and a demonstration of cardinal spirit.

What: Cooke-McClelland

When: Saturday 9th September. Start @2:30

Where: Burke Hall, Kew. Melway 44 J6

Who: YOU!!

Summary

Almost perfect conditions on Saturday for the Hare and Hounds. It was my first race of the course and even though Purvis had shown me on the map where there was an annoying little rise, I wasn't quite prepared for the quagmire of mud on that sheer cliff face. Some people seemed to be enjoying it though. I had mentioned to Rob Schwerkolt, in fewer words, that he was going to have trouble winning this event. After 14 minutes Rob mowed me down on the hill and had already closed the 4 min lead I had over him. Damn! Rob ended up almost taking out the handicap and the scratch race.

Scratch Race

Some great results again in the in the scratch results. Pete Simm returned from a week off (though he assured me that if he could have left the security of his bathroom he would have attended the Williamson), and despite looking fatigued, placed 3rd and by my calculations, has taken out the APSOC Athlete of the Year Award for the second time. Well done Pete! Stu Facey, without his arch rival Ross Becroft running, came 19th. Ross will be away for the next two weeks, lapping it up on a 40ft yacht in the Whitsundays. Will Hauser had his first race back since he arrived home from Europe.

Will showed some promising signs, but it was quite clear that beer, and not running, had played a more prominent part in his tours.

Handicap Race

As mentioned before, Rob Schwerkolt had a solid run and came fourth in the handicap. He is now fighting it out with Dean Gasson for the second place in the Athlete of the Year Award. Jon Holmes came 13th, and Peter Dodgshun, in his 109th consecutive APSOC race, came 16th. Rob Wilson and Col Findlay came 19th and 26th respectively.

APSOC Dinner

Places are now closed for the 75th anniversary APSOC dinner. Apparently, Old Scotch has a record attendance of 25 people! It shall be a great night.

Cross-Country and Aths Drinks

Tentatively keep free Sunday the 1st of October! Rumour has it there could be an end of cross-country season/start of athletics drinks party that afternoon!

Ant Rickards – Noumea Marathon

OS Summer Athlete (and Wesley winter athlete, but he's ours first!) has come second in the Noumea marathon in a time of 2:34.00. Another brilliant result for Ant.

Cheers
